OLGA PETROVA AT UNIQUE.

OLGA PETROVA AT ENIQUE.

The Unique presents Olga Petrova in "My Madonna" for its special attraction today and Sunday.

"My Madonna," a five-act drama of the studio, affords excellent opportunity for Miss Petrova, who played the stellar roles in The Heart of a Fainted Woman" and "The Vampire."

Mis Petrova and an excellent cast, headed by Guy Combs, one of the most popular actors appearing on the screen, and who has played leading man for Mrs. Pieke and other stage celebrities, give a fine performance in this ple-ture.

Mrs. Pieke and other stage celebrities, give a fine performance in this pleture.

"My Madonna" was produced under the direction of Afree Blache, one of the foremost producers and directors of the world, and tells a strong heart interest story of unusuity power. The ahows start at 12 noon, 1:16 p. m., 2:26, 3:45, 6:15, 7:36, 8:46 and 10 p. m. Admission, 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.—Myertisement.

"SALVATION NELL."

"Salvation Nell," Edward Sheldon's great play in which Mrs. Fisks starred for so long, is the offering at the Alhambra today and tomorrow. It is a very powerful forama when seen on the screen, full of startling and lurid episodes of underworld life. Tense situations and thrilling moments abound in this ploture, which at all times carries an intense heart appeal. Beatric Michelena, the celebrated California prima dona, has the part of Nell Saunders, and she has given a wonderful characterization. She is supported by an excellent company and the reviewers concide that "Salvation Nell" is one of the best releases of the month.—Adv.
